FAQ Task

Question:
Could we also add some other features beside the given ones like histograms or similar?
Also, what is the loss function you are going to use to evaluate the results for the classification?

Answer:
It is okay to use other features, but no pre-trained CNN (convolutional neuronal networks) features because not everyone has the computing facilities for CNN features.
As to the evaluation, we use average precision over different recalls.